

The Armor of God

Mistaken Identity – Day 28

1. Consider each of the highlighted portions of this passage. Choose two that speak most to you and then list them below.

2. Why do these two statements mean the most to you?

3. List any ways these truths contradict what you may have been told by other people throughout your life.

4. Remember the list of “benefits” from your salvation inheritance package we studied yesterday? Determine which portions David’s psalm correspond with each one.
 - I am unworthy.
 - I am unloved.
 - I am incapable.
 - I am undesirable.
 - I am unforgivable.
 - I am unknown.
 - My life is insignificant.
 - I can lose my salvation.

5. What does this equation reveal about why the enemy attacks your sense of identity – who you are in Christ?

6. Now think back all the way to the beginning of this study when you wrote the circumstance or person that is most difficult in your life right now. Remember? In the oval? (It’s been 6 weeks, so feel free to update or change this if you need to.)
 - What are the lies that the enemy has used in this circumstance to perpetuate in your mind?

- How could solid footing in your spiritual identity help to defray his attempts and ultimately your reactions and responses to this circumstance/person.
7. What are some strategic places you could post truth tomorrow, so you'll have it on hand through the day? Maybe in some of the same places you've been posting your prayers?
